

THE PUBLIC LAND CONSULTANCY

Independent professional advice and support for managers and users of public land

LEASES AND LICENCES OF PUBLIC LAND

A 3-Module On-line Course for Managers and Users of Public Land

COURSE CONTENT

Module 1 – The law governing tenures

Landlords and Tenants

- Basic property law: Crown land, freehold land, Native title
- Tenures: leases, licences and agreements; unauthorized occupations and adverse possession
- Councils' roles - as landowner, local government, delegated manager, or tenant.

The Legislation

- The Land Act 1958; the Crown Land (Reserves) Act 1978
- The Property Law Act 1958, Transfer of Land Act 1958 and other Acts relating principally to freehold land
- The Retail Leases Act 2003; Residential Tenancies Act 1997

Module 2 – The administration of tenures

Negotiating Tenures

- Competition Policy, Expressions of Interest and Tenders
- Term, rental, risk apportionment, rights and responsibilities
- Community tenants and subsidised rentals

Managing Tenures

- Sub-tenures, mortgages, assignments and variations
- Compliance, enforcement, penalties and dispute resolution
- Terminations and renewals

Module 3 – Current and emerging issues

Responding to the Changing Law

- The new Local Government Act 2020 Community Action Plans and Community Asset Committees
- The elements of a clear and consistent tenancy policy
- The Auditor General's commentary on subsidisation
- The forthcoming rewrite of Crown land legislation

Responding to the Changing Community

- Transitioning into and out of the COVID-19 lockdown
- Growth, multiculturalism and diversity
- The evolving distinction between 'community' and 'commercial'

Community Tenures are Changing

Community tenures have always been complex – for Crown land and freehold land alike. Now is the time for reform -

- As communities grow, evolve and diversify
- As facilities go into and re-emerge from the COVID-19 lockdown
- As councils readjust to the new Local Government Act 2020
- As we head towards the reform of Crown land legislation, and
- As budgets tighten.

This course provides groundwork for a re-assessment of the relationships between municipalities, communities and their public land.

Your Presenter Richard O'Byrne
